The three pieces were all bid in by John P. Huntington, acting in the interests of certain depositing and assenting bondholders, about 25 in all, and including all the bondholders of the company except about half a dozen. The bids at which the property was knocked down aggregated $22,500.

About 25 men attended the auction which was begun shortly after 2.30 o'clock by Auctioneer W. B. Willcox, after Robert W. Perkins, secretary and treasurer of the Thames Loan & Trust company, had read descriptions of the property. The so-called Ansel Clark building, a two-story and basement brick building at the rear of Nos 9 and 11 Water street, was first offered and George W. Carroll started it with a bid of $500. At the meeting of the Norwich socialist party Thursday evening in the Stead building it was voted to favor the use of voting machines in public elections, and the opening of the polls from 5 a. m. to 5 p. m., so that the workingmen may have a better opportunity to yote. Two new members were admitted. The membership of the local party has nearly doubled in the past five months. The literature agent was instructed to secure a copy of the government publication. Boycotts and injunctions in the United States, for reference work in the library. It was voted to engage a permanent jaintor, as the rooms are in use much of the time for various purposes. The social committee reported that a programme of unusual excellence has been prepared for next. Thursday, July 6, when refreshments will be served. It was voted to purchase official party stationery for use in all official business. The national referendum amending the constitution by removing the limit of time that a party officer may hold office was discussed at considerable length, most of the speakers favoring a two year limit. The press committee was instructed to draft a statement regarding arricles which have appeared in local papers on Catholicism and socialism. On the conclusion of the business session Mr. Button read an extract from a publication of the Watch Tower and Tract society on the present social unrest and the clash between the capital stand the workman and resulting disturbances, with suggestions for amelioration.
